

Avjobs Cares US Armed Forces Service

Help Your Displaced Employees get Back to Work

When an employee is faced with a voluntary or involuntary career transition, it is a very difficult and challenging time for all involved. Avjobs' expertise and industry leadership gets displaced individuals back to work quickly. It is our priority at Avjobs to provide service men and women with the highest level of re-employment assistance immediately upon release.

Under the Avjobs Cares Re-Employment Service, Avjobs offers a US Armed Forces Discount. Avjobs recognizes the potential of our Armed Forces and eases their transition to a new career. We provide a course of action necessary to move experienced service men and women into the aviation industry.

Why is it Important?

- Helping retiring service men/women through difficult times is the right thing to do
- Let the industry capture existing talent
- Recognize the significance that was contributed during tenure
- Ensure a smooth transition and provide the opportunity to focus toward the future

"It is our priority to provide our Armed Forces with immediate assistance," says Tim Lahey, President of Avjobs. "The relief package is designed to give workers re-entering the workplace the tools they need to find their dream job in the aviation industry quickly."

Avjobs Cares Coverage

Avjobs Cares US Armed Forces Service assists US Armed Forces through their personal transitions. Armed forces who have been released or retired within the last 12 months may qualify for eligibility. When the time comes to re-enter the civilian world, it can be overwhelming and a bit daunting. Avjobs Cares US Armed Forces Services provides the tools for a successful transition.
